

BUTLER UNIVERSITY

CELEBRATION OF DIVERSITY 2012

Proudly presents

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. CELEBRATION

“HONOR THE LEGACY — LIVE THE DREAM”

JANUARY 14–27, 2012

SPECIAL EVENTS

Jan. 14 The Peace Learning Center's 14th Annual “Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Festival” celebrating the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Enjoy music, dance, poetry, a community fair and a free lunch. 11 a.m.–3 p.m., Christian Theological Seminary, 1100 W. 42nd St. Admission is free. For more information, contact the Peace Learning Center at (317) 327-7144.

Jan. 16 “Songs of Freedom and Celebration” Carillon Concert honoring the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., performed by William E. Engle, University Carillonneur. Noon, Holcomb Gardens, on the Butler campus.

Celebrate the life and work of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. at the Indianapolis Museum of Art, 4200 North Michigan Road. Enjoy a day full of interactive activities including gallery tours, games, art activities and continuous film screenings for all ages. 11 a.m. – 5 p.m. Admission is free. For more information, call (317) 923-1331 extension 214.

“Remember! Celebrate! Act! — A Day of Service” Butler students honor the spirit of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. through a day of volunteer service at the Indianapolis Museum of Art, 4200 North Michigan Road. Sponsored by the Efroymson Diversity Center and the Morton-Finney Leadership Program. For more information, contact the Efroymson Diversity Center at (317) 940-6570.

Jan. 23 “Gospel in the DC — An evening of music, praise and fellowship, featuring Butler's Voices of Deliverance Gospel Choir”, 7 p.m., Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004. Co-sponsored by Diversity Programs and the Voices of Deliverance Gospel Choir.

Jan. 25–
Jan. 26 “Breaking the Mirrors” — Performance artist Rebecca Kling will present a story of her own explorations of gender as a child. Breaking the mirrors confronts the gender policing experienced in our daily lives, and explores how to live with regrets, overcome mistakes and accept our identity. 8 p.m., Eidson-Duckwall Recital Hall, Robertson Hall. Admission—$10. Admission is free for Butler students with valid ID. For more information, call (317) 940-9231. Sponsored by Jordan College of Fine Arts. Co-sponsored by the Efroymson Diversity Center.

Jan. 27 “Gender and Identity, Diversity and Respect” — Diversity workshop presented by performance artist Rebecca Kling. 3 p.m., Black Box Theatre, Lilly Hall, Room 168. For more information, call (317) 940-9231. Sponsored by Jordan College of Fine Arts. Co-sponsored by the Efroymson Diversity Center.

FILM SCREENINGS AND DIALOGUE

Continuous Screenings will be held in the Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union, Room 004.

Jan. 17 “The Speeches Collection, Volume 1” (2002). Features Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., one of the most inspirational speakers of all time. Follow his electrifying speeches from the early days as a young pastor in Montgomery, to the great march on Washington.

Jan. 18 Martin Luther King Jr.: The Commemorative Collection (1988). Documentary chronicling the life and legacy of Dr. King, as shared by Coretta Scott King and other distinguished world leaders; includes footage of his most famous speeches.

Jan. 19 Citizen King (2004). PBS documentary exploring the final five years of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s life through personal recollections and interviews with historians, movement colleagues, law enforcement officials, journalists and friends.

Jan. 20 “Barack Obama: From His Childhood Years to His Historic Election” (2008). The Biography Channel narrates the riveting story of Barack Obama, from his childhood in Honolulu to his history-making presidential win.

Jan. 24 The Occupy Movement: What Would King Do? A dialogue exploring the impact of Dr. King's philosophical perspective on contemporary societal issues, with a focus on the resurgence of social and political activism. 6 p.m., Efroymson Diversity Center, AU 004. Refreshments will be served.

“THE BEAUTY
OF GENUINE
BROTHERHOOD
AND PEACE
IS MORE
PRECIOUS THAN DIAMONDS
OR SILVER OR GOLD.”

*From Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Nobel Peace
Prize acceptance speech, Oslo, Norway, 1964*

Butler University's “Celebration of Diversity 2012” Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday activities are sponsored by the Black Student Union, Efroymson Diversity Center, Jordan College of Fine Arts, Voices of Deliverance Gospel Choir, Student Government Association, R.E.A.C.H., Division of Student Affairs, Peace Learning Center, Inc., Indianapolis Museum of Art, Morton-Finney Leadership Program, and the Office of Diversity Programs.

For more information on these events, contact the Office of Diversity Programs at (317) 940-6570.