

Declaration of a College of Communication (CCOM) Concentration

To meet graduation requirements in CCOM, students are required to have a 2nd major, or minor, or Concentration. Concentration is defined by:

- 12 credit hours outside of the primary major
- Courses with the same letter designators or as approved by Department Chair
- Courses that share some area of academic or professional focus
- Must include 6 credits at the 300-level or higher
- May include 100, 200, 300, or 400-level courses, as long as 6 credits are at the 300-level
- Must earn a grade of C- or better for all courses

Restrictions

- No CCOM Core or University Core courses may count toward a Concentration
- No more than one course (3 credits) may be taken using the Pass/Fail grading standard
- No more than 3 credits may overlap between the primary major or minor and Concentration
- Concentration in a foreign language is possible, but because of overlap rules, a minor is encouraged
