
Affiliate Code of Responsibility for Security and Confidentiality of Information

Butler University, both as an educational institution of higher learning and an employer, requires the strict confidentiality and security of the institution's records, in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), Indiana code and other federal, state and local laws as applicable that affect the dissemination and use of confidential or protected information and records. Affiliates who have access to such information and/or records shall safeguard the privacy and confidentiality of such information and/or records and shall not disclose or disseminate such information and/or records (in whatever form maintained) to any unauthorized person or entity.

Any violation of this Affiliate Code of Responsibility will subject the offending affiliate to action consistent with the policies of Butler University, which may include termination of affiliate status and possible legal action. Where the affiliate is a student, disciplinary action may also include suspension or expulsion from the University, or such other academic or other sanctions as the University deems appropriate.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, activities which are prohibited in all cases include, but are not limited to:

1. Engaging in any unauthorized or inappropriate use of information and/or records, or permitting such unauthorized or inappropriate use;
2. Obtaining or attempting to obtain personal benefit or permitting others to obtain or attempt to obtain personal benefit by the use or disclosure of any confidential information and/or records that an affiliate accesses in the course of his/her affiliate relationship or otherwise;
3. Exhibiting or divulging contents of any record or report to any person or entity, except in the conduct of the affiliate's scope and/or responsibilities in accordance with Butler University policies;
4. Knowingly including or causing to be included in any record or report a false, inaccurate, or misleading entry;
5. Removing any official record or report (or copy thereof) from the office where it is kept, except in the affiliate's scope and/or responsibilities in accordance with Butler University policies; and
6. Aiding, abetting, or acting in conspiracy with any other person to violate or compromise the confidentiality of protected information or records, or to violate this Affiliate Code of Responsibility.

Computer Use Policy: Sharing of passwords and/or accounts is STRICTLY PROHIBITED and may result in loss of access at any time deemed necessary by Butler University.

Affiliates are expected to immediately report any threatened or actual violation of this Affiliate Code of Responsibility to their sponsoring department or the Human Resources Department.

The Affiliate signing below acknowledges that he/she has read, understands, and agrees to abide by this Affiliate Code of Responsibility and Butler University's Identity Theft Policy, Computer Use Policy, and FERPA Policy.

Affiliate Signature: _____

Date: _____

Printed Name: _____