

Moodle Scheduled to Receive Update over Winter Break

In the spring 2017 semester, Moodle will feature a number of new enhancements designed to facilitate your course management. There are many new features coming but a few of the more popular ones include faster section editing, the addition of a Recycle Bin, new Forum options, and the new Mass Actions block. CAT has workshops planned to help you learn about and make the most of these new features. Check out the events listed below for dates, times and registration for these workshops.

CAT Staff Member Joins ICEA Board

Megan Grady-Rutledge will be joining the Indiana College English Association's Board, a post that will enable her to advocate for technology use in the English classroom. In October, Megan gave a presentation at ICEA's annual conference on literary geography, focusing specifically on how both real and imagined literary spaces can be mapped with the aid of free, interactive authoring tools. Megan obtained her Master of Arts in English from Butler in 2010.
