On a separate sheet of paper, develop a professional identity statement/philosophy. Keep in mind the following as you write:

1. Your audience is external, so avoid terms that are Butler specific.
2. Your identity should include what your professional beliefs are and why you believe them.
3. Think of this as a written version of an “elevator speech” - how you respond when someone asks why you want this particular job/profession/etc.
4. Be specific about what YOU believe, know and intended to do in your professional life. Include how Butler has contributed to your readiness for this experience.
5. The one-to two pages should be clear, concise, and free from errors in both grammar and punctuation.

With my typed signature below, I certify that the information I have provided is accurate and complete.
