Stand Tall Info Booth & Photo Project
April 2, 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM, at Starbucks in Atherton Union

Stop by to participate in the “Consent Is” campaign and chat with students about how you can become involved in Stand Tall / It’s On Us.

Restorative Yoga
April 3, 4:30 - 5:30 PM, in the HRC Group Fitness Room

Students, faculty, and staff are invited to experience the healing benefits of yoga. Nicole will lead us through an inspiring, hour long all-levels vinyasa flow that will acknowledge the ways in which our bodies carry our experiences—good and bad. Our class will hold space for those moments and also create space to let them go. This class will be led by Nicole DeYoung, Lifestyle Wellness Coach and longtime advocate for survivors of sexual violence.

Take Back the Night / SAAM Kick-Off
April 5, 6:00 - 8:00 PM, in the Reilly Room

Join the women of Alpha Chi Omega with support from the Office of Health Education and Outreach Programs in unity to participate in an evening dedicated to sexual and domestic violence awareness. There will be resources, equal opportunity drawings with prizes, food, live performances and speakers, a walk to finish the night, and much more! Admission is $5 and will benefit The Julian Center and The Alpha Chi Omega Foundation.

Teal Out On The Canal
April 7, 11:00 AM - 3:00 PM, at the Ohio Street Basin, 429 W. Ohio St.

Enjoy a family-friendly afternoon of live music and guest speakers. Bring a blanket or chair and indulge in a delicious lunch from the various food trucks lining the street while joining your community to speak up and out against sexual assault.

Stand Tall Info Booth & Photo Project
April 9, 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM, at Starbucks in Atherton Union

Stop by to participate in the “Consent Is” campaign and chat with students about how you can become involved in Stand Tall / It’s On Us.

Resource Panel at Faculty Senate (Faculty only)
April 10, 8:00 - 8:30 AM, in Pharmacy Building 156

Hear from Butler University representatives who provide support victims and survivors of sexual and interpersonal violence about their role including the Victim Advocate, Title IX Coordinator, and BUPD.
Expand the Mat Yoga
April 12, 6:45 - 8:00 PM, at the Indianapolis Central Library, 40 E. St Clair St.

All community members are invited to register for this free hour long vinyasa yoga flow class led by Butler University alum Nicole DeYoung inside the beautiful Central Library atrium! This event is sponsored by the Domestic Violence Network and Legacy House. The class will acknowledge the ways in which our bodies carry our experiences--good and bad. The class will hold space for those moments and also create space to let them go. We will have several yoga mats available to borrow, but please bring your own if you have one. Register here:

https://www.eventbrite.com/e/expand-the-mat-tickets-43134890619

Scholarly Discussion of Women Portrayed in the Opera
April 13, 6:30 - 7:30 PM, at the Schrott Center

The panel will include Dr. Lisa Brooks, Dean of JCA; Dr. Claire Carrasco, Assistant Professor of Musicology at Butler; Dr. Shannon MacVeans, Brown, from diocese of Indianapolis, and Lade Akande, Butler Alum and college counselor at University High School. Scholars will discuss how women are portrayed in our opera production, why it’s relevant to today, and what resources are available on campus.

Stand Tall Info Booth & Photo Project
April 16, 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM, at Starbucks in Atherton Union

Stop by to participate in the “Consent Is” campaign and chat with students about how you can become involved in Stand Tall / It’s On Us.

Resource Panel at Staff Assembly (Staff only)
April 18, 10:00 - 11:00 AM, in the Ford Salon

Hear from Butler University representatives who provide support victims and survivors of sexual and interpersonal violence about their role including the Victim Advocate, Counseling & Consultation Services, Title IX Coordinator, and BUPD.

Prosecuting Sex Crimes in Indy
April 19, 12:30 – 1:30 PM, in Gallahue Hall 102

Special guest, Courtney Curtis, Division Chief of the Special Victims Team at the Marion County Prosecutor's Office, speaks with the Butler community on what happens when a victim reports allegations of sexual assault to law enforcement, resulting in the filing of criminal charges with the Prosecutor’s Office. Participants will also have the opportunity to ask anonymous questions.

Self-Defense Class
April 21, 2:00 - 4:30 PM, in the Johnson Room

In a safe and constructive environment, learn techniques on protecting yourself in potentially dangerous situations by BUPD. Meet the Title IX Coordinator, bring your friends, and enjoy free food and drinks!
Stand Tall Info Booth & Photo Project
April 23, 11:00 AM - 1:00 PM, at Starbucks outside of Atherton Union

Stop by to participate in the “Consent Is” campaign and chat with students about how you can become involved in Stand Tall / It’s On Us.

Restorative Yoga
April 24, 4:30 - 5:30 PM, in the HRC Group Fitness Room

Students, faculty and staff are invited to experience the healing benefits of yoga. This class will be led by Nicole DeYoung, Lifestyle Wellness Coach and longtime advocate for survivors of sexual violence. Nicole will lead us through an inspiring, hour long all-levels vinyasa flow that will acknowledge the ways in which our bodies carry our experiences--good and bad. Our class will hold space for those moments and also create space to let them go.

Denim Day
April 25, all day

Break out the denim today, Dawgs! Did you know that Denim Day was started in 1999 by the women of the Italian Parliament? After a judge overturned a rape conviction because the survivor’s jeans were too tight to be removed by the perpetrator, the women of Italian Parliament sprung to action and wore jeans in solidarity with the survivor. Denim Day made its way to California shortly after, and has become a worldwide day of solidarity with survivors of sexual violence. More information here:

http://denimdayinfo.org/

Stand Tall / It’s On Us Vigil
April 26, 8:00 - 9:00 PM, at Star Fountain

Please join The Stand Tall Project / It’s On Us organization at Star Fountain for a candlelight vigil (candles provided) to take a stance in unity with survivors and our Butler community to end sexual violence. Special guest and Poet-In-Residence, Professor Alessandra Lynch, will commence the evening with an original reading. Students, staff, and faculty are invited to speak out or share their own thoughts, art, and stories.