SUBMIT A REPORT

Law Enforcement

You have the option of making a criminal report to police.

Butler University Police Department (BUPD):
525 W. Hampton Drive; emergencies (317) 940-9999; non-emergencies (317) 940-9396

Indianapolis Metro Police Department (IMPD):
emergencies 911; non-emergencies (317) 327-3811

University

You also have the option of reporting to the University. Reporting to the University does not necessarily result in a formal investigation and adjudication process.

Title IX Coordinator: AU 200; titleix@butler.edu; (317) 940-6509; online report form available at www.butler.edu/sexual-misconduct

SUPPORTIVE MEASURES

Supportive measures are non-punitive, non-disciplinary individualized services meant to protect or restore an individual's equal access to the University's employment or education programs or activities.

These measures are available to Complainants regardless of how they choose to resolve the report.

Available supportive measures include:

- Academic adjustments
- Campus escorts
- On-campus housing adjustments
- On-campus work adjustments
- Residential community ban
- University Administrative No Contact Order
