Attendance at Convocation is required for undergrad music majors. (Graduate students, music minors, and secondary music majors are welcome and encouraged to come, but not required.) One unexcused absence per semester is allowed. A second unexcused absence in a single semester requires attendance at one additional music event; this event is added to the regular Performance Attendance Requirements for music majors. A third absence in the same semester requires attendance at 3 additional music events. For each additional absence, attendance at 3 music events will be required (for example, a fourth absence requires an additional 6 event attendances).

*To book a spot on the student recitals or student chamber recital, see Joy Rogers in LH229.
