

Excellent Educators Impacting Our World

| PrepareExcellent Educators  | IncubateInnovative Solutions   | ShowcaseExcellence in Teaching,Learning, &amp; Leading   | DedicateFacility for Teaching,Learning, &amp; Leading  |
|---|--|---|---|
| Exceed unit accreditation requirements at each cycleDeb Lecklider &amp; Karen Farrell <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>National Recognition for all SPAs/programs</li> <li>CACREP accreditation</li> <li>Self-Study submitted to CAEP with a site visit scheduled for 11/10</li> </ul> Achieve enrollment/retention goals by 2020Angela Lupton &amp; 3Rs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Added six central Indiana districts participating in dual credit</li> <li>Developed 2019-2020 marketing plan for admission recruiting cycle including admitting the first class of the Youth and Community Development majors</li> <li>Maintained steady enrollment over the past several years while many of our peer institutions have seen a decline in enrollment</li> </ul> Maintain 100% job placement rate for those licensed and seeking employmentKatie Russo Maintained a consistently high job placement rate for those licensed and seeking employment Strategic Alignment – Prepare | Develop innovative programming annuallyDeb Lecklider, Arthur Hochman, Susan Kleinman <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>New Secondary Special Education licensure started 2017-2018</li> <li>Applied Educational Neuroscience Certificate approved by the college and university (2017)</li> <li>The annual Neuroscience Symposium has hosted over 1,100 participants (2018)</li> <li>EPIC Superintendent Academy started (2017) and now in Cohort 3</li> <li>The new Youth and Community Development major approved (2019)</li> </ul> Strategic Alignment: Support, Integrate | Increase COE profile 2016-2020Susan Adamson, Susan Adams, Nick Abel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The Butler Brain Project</li> <li>USDOE Title III National Professional Development grant of more than two million dollars to increase the number of Indiana teachers with ESL licensure and to partner with community stakeholders</li> <li>Ongoing opportunities for teachers from the community, faculty, and Butler students to participate in Indiana Partnership for Inquiry workshops; grant funding totalling almost $500,000 to support participation by community teachers, Butler faculty, and Butler students in workshops sponsored by the Indiana Partnership for Inquiry</li> <li>Global initiatives: Italy, Sweden, Costa Rica, Great Britain</li> <li>Publications and conference presentations by faculty and Butler students</li> <li>Teaching or co-teaching in University Core Curriculum: Text and Ideas, Natural World, Perspectives in Creative Arts</li> <li>Development of new state standards on social and emotional competencies by faculty members</li> <li>Host of the state Special Olympics Leadership Conference</li> </ul> Strategic Alignment:Commit, Engage, Prepare, Support | Create a facilityEna Shelley, Susan Kleinman &amp; BOV The College of Education moved to the newly renovated South Campus building in Fall 2018 Strategic Alignment: Evolve |