

This is NOT a list of companies and organizations that are currently hiring international students:

- Some of these companies may no longer have the ability to hire international students.
- However, these companies have hired international students in the past and can serve as a starting point for your self-directed search.
- *REMINDER: As an international student, you might have better chances of getting a job in U.S.-based non-corporate organizations due to different work visa options.
- *IMPORTANT TIP: Visit the employment pages of these company websites to search for potential openings.
