Tuesday, March 15
“Spirit of Art: A Gathering in Honor of Gertrude” – Visual and Spoken Word Art Show featuring an exhibition of works by Nydia Aucner, Sholeh Shahrokhi, and Gabriola Muniz
7 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004

Wednesday, March 16
Women’s History Month Brown Bag Lunch Series – “Women of Color in Research”
Presented by Bettine Gibbes, Junior, Pharmacy major
12 noon – 1 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
Lunch will be provided. Bring your own dessert.
Sponsored by the Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies Program and the Efroymson Diversity Center

Thursday, March 17
Vivian S. Delbrook Visiting Writers Series presents Claudia Rankine
Distinguished Poet and National Book Award Winner
7:30 p.m.
Edison-Duckwall Recital Hall
Admission is Free, but ticket is required.

Saturday, March 19
“Empowering Women through Mind and Spirit”
10 a.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
RSVP at http://formstack.com/forms/butler-diversityevents

Monday, March 21
Women’s History Month Brown Bag Lunch Series – “A Conversation with Shadiel Badee”
12 noon – 1 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
Lunch will be provided. Bring your own dessert.
Sponsored by the Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies Program and the Efroymson Diversity Center

Wednesday, March 23
Women’s History Month Film Series presents “Surf饕ettes” (2015)
5 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
Presented by SISA Diversity Inclusion Board - Feminism Week

Saturday, March 26
Celebrating Women’s Wellness
10 a.m. – 2 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
RSVP at http://formstack.com/forms/butler-diversityevents

Women’s History Month Panel Discussion, presented by Demia
Topic: “The Case of Bei Bei Shuai and Purvi Patel”
6:30 p.m.
Reilly Room, Atherton Union

Sunday, March 27
Annual Women’s History Oratorical Contest
6:30 p.m.
Reilly Room, Atherton Union

Monday, March 28
Women’s History Month Brown Bag Lunch Series – “The Butler Trials: Feminism and Academic Freedom in Higher Education”
Presented by Dr. Vivian Deno, Associate Professor of History – Gender, Women’s and Sexuality Studies Faculty
12 noon – 1 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
Lunch will be provided. Bring your own dessert.
Sponsored by the Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies Program and the Efroymson Diversity Center

Tuesday, March 29
Women’s History Month Film Series presents “Thelma and Louise” (1991) – 25th anniversary screening starring Susan Sarandon and Geena Davis.
Directed by Ridley Scott
7 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, AU 004

Thursday, March 31
Presented by Dr. Terri Jett, Associate Professor of Political Science and Special Assistant to the Provost for Diversity and Inclusion.
12 noon – 1 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004
Lunch will be provided. Bring your own dessert.
Sponsored by the Gender, Women’s & Sexuality Studies Program and the Efroymson Diversity Center

Friday, April 1
“One A Fashion Show About Unity”
7:00 p.m.
Reilly Room, Atherton Union
Presented by the Efroymson Diversity Center Council

Saturday, April 2
Books and Breakfast - A free breakfast featuring a reading and discussion of Angela Davis: An Autobiography
9 a.m. – 12 noon
Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center, 40 West 40th Street, 46208
Sponsored by the Butler University Department of Political Science, the Center for Citizenship and Community, and the Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center

Sunday, April 3
20th Annual International Dinner
6:30 p.m.
Reilly Room, Atherton Union
Presented by the International Club, Office of International Student Services, and the SISA Diversity Inclusion Board

Monday, April 4
Women’s History Month Film Series presents “Beyond” (2014) – Bicpoc on the life of the legendary “Empress of the Blues.”
Bessie Smith. Starring Queen Latifah and Mo’Nique
7 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004

Tuesday, April 5
Vivian S. Delbrook Visiting Writers Series presents Marilyn Hacker
Distinguished Poet and National Book Award Winner
7:30 p.m.
Kranert Room, Clowes Memorial Hall
Admission is Free, but ticket is required.

Monday, April 11
Women’s History Month Film Series presents “Chi-Raq” (2015), with Nick Cannon, Teyonah Parris, and Wesley Snipes.
Produced and directed by Spike Lee
8 p.m.
Efroymson Diversity Center, Atherton Union 004

Wednesday, April 13
Women’s History Month Film Series presents “Persepolis” (2007) – A French-Iranian American animated film based on Marjane Satrapi’s autobiographical graphic novel
Written and directed by Marjane Satrapi with Vincent Paronnaud
6 p.m.
Pharmacy Building 156

Thursday, April 14
J. James Woods Lecture Series presents “Discovering What the Dog Knows”
An Address by Alexandra Horowitz, Associate Professor of Psychology, Barnard College, Columbia University
7:30 p.m.
Reilly Room, Atherton Union

Celebration of Diversity 2016 Women’s History events are sponsored by the College of Communication Symposium, NEH/Frederic M. Ayres Fund, Program of Gender, Women & Sexuality Studies, Department of Critical Communication and Media Studies, Vivian S. Delbrook Visiting Writers Series, J. James Woods Lecture Series, Center for Citizenship and Community, Desmond Tutu Center for Peace, Reconciliation, and Global Justice, Division of Student Affairs, Office of the Provost, Demia, Efroymson Diversity Center Council, international Club, Office of International Student Services, SISA Diversity Inclusion Board, Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center, Department of Political Science, Department of Peace and Conflict Studies, Office of Diversity Programs, and the Efroymson Diversity Center.