EACH OF US has a unique view through which we see the world. Shaped by our experiences, culture, and familial identity, this view forms our beliefs, values, and way of life. A New View Film Series will journey outside everyday life to explore new worldviews through the screening of six films. Each screening will be followed by a discussion with the audience.

A NEW VIEW FILM SERIES

The series will take place every other month from July 2016 through May 2017 at Butler University’s Eidson-Duckwall Recital Hall (located adjacent to Robertson Hall).

THE SERIES is FREE and OPEN to the PUBLIC.
10 QUESTIONS for the DALAI LAMA
THURSDAY, JULY 14, 2016, 6:30 PM
A fascinating portrait of the 14th Dalai Lama and an interview with him, conducted by Rick Ray. This unusual film includes footage of the Dalai Lama’s youth, the Chinese takeover of Tibet, and his life in exile in India. If you had one hour with the “rock star of peace,” what would you want to know?

BEYOND BORDERS: The Debate Over Human Migration
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2016, 6:30 PM
An in-depth look at the hot-button issues of legal and illegal immigration. The film explores the forces driving the immigration controversy from both sides of the debate.

INOCENTE
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2016, 6:30 PM
A personal and vibrant coming of age story about a young artist’s determination never to surrender to the bleakness of her surroundings. At 15, Inocente refuses to let her dream of becoming an artist be caged by being an undocumented immigrant forced to live homeless for the last nine years. Inocente is both a timeless story about the transformative power of art and a timely snapshot of the new face of homelessness in

THE JEWISH CARDINAL
THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2017, 6:30 PM
Jean-Marie Lustiger maintained his cultural identity as a Jew even after converting to Catholicism at a young age, and later joining the priesthood. When Carmelite nuns settle down to build a convent within the cursed walls of Auschwitz, Lustiger finds himself a mediator between the two communities, and may be forced at last to choose his side.

INUK
THURSDAY, MARCH 16, 2017, 6:30 PM
Created as an original road-movie on the sea-ice, Inuk is both an authentic story of Greenland today, a country torn between tradition and modernity, and a universal story about the quest for identity, transmission, and rebirth after the deepest of wounds.

ON A WING AND A PRAYER: An American Muslim Learns to Fly
THURSDAY, MAY 18, 2017, 6:30 PM
On a Wing and a Prayer follows Monem Salam as he enrolls in an open-minded flying school, where he soon draws the attention of the FBI. This gently funny film follows Monem as he works towards his goal, engaging his wife, family, and community in the process.

For accessibility information or to request disability-related accommodations, please visit www.butler.edu/event-accommodations.