Long Term Disability Benefit Summary
Class 1 - All Eligible Full Time Employees

Full-time Employee Requirement	An eligible employee is a full-time permanent employee authorized to work and reside in the United States. Eligible employees must work 37.5 or more hours per week and cannot be considered a part-time, temporary or seasonal employee. If any eligible employee is not actively at work on the individual effective date, group insurance coverage for that employee will not exist until he/she returns to full-time active work.
Monthly Benefit Amount	60% of an Employee's covered monthly earnings to a maximum benefit of $14,000; reduced by Other Income Benefits as outlined in the contract.
Definition of Earnings	Basic monthly earnings only: The amount of coverage will be based upon earnings as last reported in writing to and approved by AUL. In no event will the amount of earnings used to calculate benefits under the AUL contract exceed the lesser of the amount approved by AUL, amount shown in the Employer's payroll records, or for which premium has been paid.
Elimination Period	A period of 90 consecutive days of Total Disability for which no benefit is payable and during which the Person does not become eligible for any other group long term disability insurance.
Maximum Benefit Duration	RBD. The maximum amount of time that an insured Employee may be entitled to benefits if continuously disabled as outlined in the contract.
Minimum Monthly Benefit	The greater of 15% of gross monthly benefit or $100. While a monthly benefit amount is payable, the monthly benefit shall not be reduced to an amount less than the minimum monthly benefit.
Total Disability	An Insured is considered Totally Disabled, if, because of an injury or sickness, he cannot perform the material and substantial duties of his Regular Occupation, is not working in any occupation and is under the regular care of physician, and, after benefits have been paid for 3 years, a Person cannot perform the duties of any Gainful Occupation that he is reasonably fitted for training, education or experience.
Accumulation of Elimination Period	If disability ends during the elimination period and reoccurs, the time while the Insured is Disabled will be treated as continuous and a new elimination period will not be required, if the elimination period is satisfied within 180 days.

Mental & Nervous/Drug & Alcohol	The duration of benefit payments due to drug and alcohol abuse and / or mental illness may not be payable beyond the maximum benefit duration and may be limited as outlined in the contract.
Pre-Existing Condition Exclusions	The pre-existing period is 3/12. Benefits will not be paid if the Person's Disability begins in the first 12 months of coverage; and the Disability is caused by, contributed to, or the result of a condition, whether or not that condition is diagnosed at all or is misdiagnosed, for which the Person received medical treatment, consultation, care or services, including diagnostic measures, or was prescribed medicines in the 3 months just prior to the Individual's effective date of insurance.
Recurrent Disability	A recurrent disability is the direct result of the injury or sickness that caused a prior disability. This benefit allows payments to resume without satisfying a new elimination period if an Employee returns to active full-time work and has a recurrent disability within 6 months of return to active work.
Residual Disability	The elimination period can be met using total disability, partial disability, or a combination of both.
Accidental Dismemberment & Loss of Sight	A monthly benefit will be paid to an Employee for the loss of limb(s) or sight due to an accidental injury. The loss must occur within 100 days of the covered accident.
Social Security Incentive	The monthly disability benefit will not be reduced for 1 month by income received as Social Security Benefits unless this income combined with income from other sources, including the monthly benefit, exceeds 100% of the pre-disability earnings.
Cost of Living Freeze	Any inflationary increases in other benefit payment(s) (i.e., Social Security) that an Employee may be receiving will not further reduce monthly disability benefits paid under the contract.
