

PA Class of 2022: CLASS OATH

As the Butler University Master of Physician Assistant Studies Class of 2022, we are grateful to have the opportunity to advance our knowledge and transform into competent physician assistants with a commitment toward the wellbeing of our future patients.

- We seek to convey mutual respect and maintain open lines of communication to foster a trusting student-professor relationship.
- We pledge to extend truthful and considerate communication to our peers, professors, preceptors and patients.
- We aim to listen intently to our patients, incorporate the four pillars of medical ethics, and make evidence-based medical decisions with an open mindedness toward alternative therapies to best serve our patients' needs.
- We promise to demonstrate compassion and practice cultural humility in each and every encounter during our training and beyond.
- We intend to educate the community and advocate diligently for the advancement of our profession.
- We aspire to uphold the traditions and values of the MPAS program by demonstrating professionalism, academic integrity and community engagement.
- We strive to share a spirit of collaboration and connectedness to support the betterment of our class.
- We promise to lean on each other with grace and humility as we pursue our academic and professional responsibilities.

We express gratitude for every being who has helped us to get here today. In honoring our continued journey, we make this oath with utmost sincerity and in doing so recognize our moral and ethical obligation to follow through on this pledge.
