Where is the Volunteer Center located?
The Volunteer Center is located on the first floor of Atherton Union in AU100 (right inside the south entrance by the bulldog statue).

What are the Volunteer Center’s hours?
The Volunteer Center is open Monday-Thursday from 10am-6pm, and on Friday from 11am-12pm.

What is the Volunteer Center Listserv? How often does it go out?
The listserv is a weekly email with a list of upcoming service opportunities on campus and in the community. It also highlights nonprofit internships and upcoming Volunteer Center events. To sign-up email volunteer@butler.edu or stop by the Volunteer Center.

How can I find out about service opportunities?
- The Volunteer Center Listserv
- The Non-Profit Directory (on the Volunteer Center’s webpage)
- Bulletin Board in Jordan Hall
- Stop by the Volunteer Center
- Volunteer Match (not associated with Butler University)

How are the student staff positions filled?
The Volunteer Center puts out applications at the end of each semester for any available positions. The Associate Director of Civil Engagement as well as the current and/or incoming Student Director participates in the selection of new staff members. All staff members are required to work 6-8 hours each week, attend staff meetings, plan service projects, as well as complete individual job responsibilities.

What can I expect at a service site? What does a service site expect of me?
Check out our Volunteer Guidelines to find out.
Why should I do service?
Check out Why Service? to find out.

Where can I find more information about service learning?
Check out the Center for Citizenship and Community Website.

Why serve while in school?
If you are interested in a career in the non-profit sector, volunteering while in school can be a great way to network and get your foot in the door at many non-profits. With so many people interested in non-profit work, it is important to stand out from the pack. To learn more check out this guide.